Slow Cooker Thai Peanut Chicken

Equipment

Skillet, 6 to 8 quart slow cooker, whisk, 2 forks for shredding, knife, cutting board, measuring spoons, measuring cup, meal-prep containers.

Ingredients

Default is the cut version: powdered peanut butter plus lite coconut milk. Full-fat swaps are noted in the data table.

Aromatics:

- 2 tsp toasted sesame oil, divided
- 5 cloves garlic, chopped
- 1 small yellow onion, diced
- 1 tbsp fresh grated ginger
- 1 tbsp curry powder

Sauce:

- 1/4 cup powdered peanut butter (PB2 or PBfit)
- 3 tbsp low-sodium soy sauce or tamari
- 1 tbsp rice vinegar
- 2 tsp sriracha
- 2 tsp brown monk-fruit sweetener, or brown sugar
- 1 tbsp fish sauce, optional
- 1/2 tsp kosher salt
- 1 cup lite canned coconut milk

Chicken:

- 1 1/2 lb (about 680 g) boneless skinless chicken breasts

Garnish and serving:

- 1/4 cup chopped roasted peanuts
- Chopped cilantro or scallion greens
- Lime wedges
- Jasmine rice, cauliflower rice, or lettuce cups

Steps

1. In a skillet over medium-low heat, warm 1 tsp sesame oil. Add the garlic, onion, and ginger; saute 3 to 4 minutes until soft. Stir in the curry powder and cook 1 to 2 minutes. Transfer to the slow cooker.

2. To the slow cooker, add and whisk smooth:
    - 1/4 cup powdered peanut butter
    - 3 tbsp low-sodium soy sauce
    - 1 tbsp rice vinegar
    - 2 tsp sriracha
    - 2 tsp brown monk-fruit sweetener
    - 1 tbsp fish sauce, if using
    - 1/2 tsp kosher salt
    - the remaining 1 tsp sesame oil
    - 1 cup lite coconut milk

3. Add the 1 1/2 lb / about 680 g chicken breasts and turn to coat in the sauce.

4. Cover and cook on high for 2 to 3 hours, or low for 4 to 6 hours, until the chicken is cooked through and shreddable.

5. Remove the chicken, shred it with 2 forks, then return it to the sauce. Cook on low for 15 more minutes so it absorbs the sauce.

6. Portion the finished chicken into 6 equal servings by weight. Each serving is about 3/4 cup, but weighing the cooked batch and dividing by 6 is more accurate. Serve over rice, cauliflower rice, or in lettuce cups. Top with measured chopped peanuts, cilantro, and a squeeze of lime.

Macro Knobs

Possible protein boosters: more chicken, serve with a side of edamame, add shredded chicken to the sauce

Possible carb boosters: jasmine rice, rice noodles, extra rice portion

Possible fat boosters: full-fat coconut milk, natural peanut butter instead of powdered, extra chopped peanuts

Possible produce/fiber boosters: serve over cauliflower rice, add snap peas, shredded carrots, cucumber, or edamame

Possible flavor knobs: Thai basil, sliced Fresno or jalapeno, extra sriracha, extra lime

Practicality Notes

Prep friction: low; mostly hands-off in the slow cooker
Storage: excellent batch-prep; refrigerate up to 4 days, freeze up to 3 months
Reheats well: yes; thaw overnight and microwave until warm
No-microwave friendly: best warm, but edible cold
Taste confidence: high if the user likes creamy, savory-sweet peanut flavor with mild heat

Review Notes

Default macros are the cut version (powdered peanut butter plus lite coconut milk) and are estimated; pin the exact powdered peanut butter, lite coconut milk, soy sauce, and chicken labels before database import. The source-listed full-fat macros are recorded for reference.

Makes roughly 6 servings. For scale-based prep, weigh the finished batch and divide by 6.
